World Assemblies of God Fellowship

CONSTITUTION

Revisions approved May 2005

Preamble

In July 1988, at the invitation of Dr. J. Philip Hogan, Executive Director of the Division of Foreign Missions, Assemblies of God, USA, general superintendents from 40 nations gathered in Springfield, Missouri, USA to discuss the possibility of active cooperation in world evangelism with a special focus on the harvest decade. A Provisional Committee composed of Assemblies of God representatives from each continent was chosen to propose means for implementing a worldwide Fellowship. The delegates at this Decade of Harvest Conference unanimously adopted the Declaration of a Decade of Harvest and signed the document.

In August 1989, the International Decade of Harvest Conference convened at Indianapolis, Indiana, USA. Upon the recommendation of the Provisional Committee, the delegates adopted the documents known as the World Pentecostal Assemblies of God Fellowship Constitution and Bylaws. Dr. Hogan was elected the first chairman of the Fellowship, and the USA Assemblies of God provided the office space and service to the Fellowship.

The purpose of the Fellowship was to pursue the fulfillment of the Lord's command to evangelize the lost in the shortest possible time, providing them the opportunity to hear and respond to the gospel in all its fullness, by encouraging and assisting one another, promoting harmonious relationships, and seeking the most effective means of its accomplishment under the dynamic leadership of the Holy Spirit.

A newsletter was created and circulated among the member councils, and the news and reports from different parts of the world encouraged others to grow and go forward in reaching the unreached.

From the inception of the Fellowship, special emphasis was placed on a worldwide prayer network and coordinating prayer power. Elected in 1992, Dr. David Yonggi Cho became the Fellowship's second chairman. In September 1993, the name was changed to "World Assemblies of God Fellowship." Then in 1994, Dr. Cho led the first World Assemblies of God Fellowship Congress in Seoul, Korea. The main thrust was on prayer, and there were one million participants and several thousand delegates from all over the world. Missions and prayer were not the only emphasis. The Fellowship has been keen to protect religious liberty as one strong voice of the worldwide Assemblies of God, and from time to time, has made appeal to the United Nations and different governments because of assassination and persecution of Assemblies of God brethren.

To meet humanitarian needs, an extended arm of the Fellowship was created under the name of World Assemblies of God Relief and Development Agency (WAGRA) in 1994 during the Seoul Congress. Since Dr. Prince Guneratnam was appointed the first International Chairman of WAGRA, the office was set up in Kuala Lumpur, Malaysia, and with the large sum of goodwill contributions from members, WAGRA immediately started providing relief assistance to many suffering nations of the world.

At their Seoul meeting in 1996, the Executive Committee addressed the need for the Fellowship to go beyond the Decade of Harvest. With a sense of the imminence of the Lord's return, there is also a sense of great spiritual hunger and need in this world. The mandate to preach the Gospel to all creatures has never changed, but the urgency of the task is greater, yet the time is slipping away. The Assemblies of God as the largest, single Pentecostal group must cooperate and coordinate their full strength to accomplish the Great Commission.

A subcommittee was appointed to study the existing Constitution and Bylaws of the Fellowship and to make a proposal for restructuring the Fellowship for a more lasting and more cooperative Fellowship. The proposal document herein was prepared to present to the General Assembly in the United States in August 2000, and the World Assemblies of God Fellowship began a new step towards the 21st century.

ARTICLE I. NAME

The name of the Fellowship shall be the World Assemblies of God Fellowship (hereafter referred to as the World Fellowship).

ARTICLE II. STATEMENT OF FAITH

Preface

This Statement of Faith is intended simply as a basis for belief, fellowship, and cooperation among us. The phraseology employed in this statement is not inspired, but the truth set forth is held to be essential to a truly Pentecostal ministry. No claim is made that it contains all biblical truth, only that it covers our need for these essential doctrines.

1. The Inspiration of the Scriptures

We believe that the Scriptures, both the Old and New Testaments, are verbally inspired of God and are the revelation of God to man, the infallible, authoritative rule of faith and conduct. Divine inspiration extends equally and fully to all parts of the original writings, insuring their entire trustworthiness (2 Timothy 3:15-17; 2 Peter 1:21).

2. The Eternal Godhead

We believe in the unity of the one true and living God who is the eternal, self-existent One, and has revealed Himself as one being in three persons: Father, Son, and the Holy Spirit (Matthew 3:16-17; 28:19).

a. God the Father

We believe in God the Father, the first person of the triune Godhead, who exists eternally as the Creator of heaven and earth, the Giver of the Law, to whom all things will be subjected, so that He may be all in all (Genesis 1:1; Deuteronomy 6:4; 1 Corinthians 15:28).

b. The Lord Jesus Christ

We believe in the Lord Jesus Christ, the second person of the triune Godhead, who was and is the eternal Son of God; that He became incarnate by the Holy Spirit and was born of the virgin Mary.

We believe in His sinless life, miraculous ministry, substitutionary atoning death, bodily resurrection, triumphant ascension, and abiding intercession (Isaiah 7:14; Hebrews 7:25-26; 1 Peter 2:22; Acts 1:9; 2:22; 10:38; 1 Corinthians 15:4; 2 Corinthians 5:21).

c. The Holy Spirit

We believe in the Holy Spirit, the third person of the triune Godhead, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, and is ever present and active in the work of convicting and regenerating the sinner, and sanctifying the believer into all truth (John 14:26; 16:8-11; 1 Peter 1:2; Romans 8:14-16).

3. The Fall of Man

We believe that humankind was created good and upright. However, voluntary transgression resulted in their alienation from God, thereby incurring not only physical death but spiritual death, which is separation from God (Genesis 1:16-27; 2:17; 3:6; Romans 5:12-19).

4. The Salvation of Man

We believe in salvation through faith in Christ, who died for our sins, was buried, and was raised from the dead on the third day. By His atoning blood, salvation has been provided for all humanity through the sacrifice of Christ upon the cross. This experience is also known as the new birth, and is an instantaneous and complete operation of the Holy Spirit whereupon the believing sinner is regenerated, justified, and adopted into the family of God, becomes a new creation in Christ Jesus, and heir of eternal life (John 3:5-6; Romans 10:8-15; Titus 2:11, 3:4-7; 1 John 5:1).

5. Divine Healing

We believe that deliverance from sickness is provided in the atonement and is the privilege of all believers (Isaiah 53:4-5; Matthew 8:16-17; James 5:14-16).

6. The Church and its Mission

We believe that the church is the body of Christ and the habitation of God through the Spirit, witnesses to the presence of the kingdom of God in the present world, and universally includes all who are born again (Ephesians 1:22-23; 2:22; Romans 14:17-18; 1 Corinthians 4:20).

We believe that the mission of the church is to (1) proclaim the good news of salvation to all humankind, (2) build up and train believers for spiritual ministry, (3) praise the Lord through worship, and (4) demonstrate Christian compassion to all who suffer (Matthew 28:19-20; 10:42; Ephesians 4:11-13).

7. The Ordinances of the Church

We believe that baptism in water by immersion is expected of all who have repented and believed. In so doing they declare to the world that they have died with Christ and been raised with Him to walk in newness of life (Matthew 28:19; Acts 10:47-48; Romans 6:4).

ARTICLE II. STATEMENT OF FAITH (Continued)

We believe that the Lord's Supper is a proclamation of the suffering and death of our Lord Jesus Christ, to be shared by all believers until the Lord returns (Luke 22:14-20; 1 Corinthians 11:20-34).

8. Sanctification

We believe that sanctification is an act of separation from that which is evil, and of dedication unto God. In experience, it is both instantaneous and progressive. It is produced in the life of the believer by his appropriation of the power of Christ's blood and risen life through the person of the Holy Spirit. He draws the believer's attention to Christ, teaches him through the Word and produces the character of Christ within him (Romans 6:1-11; 8:1-2,13; 12:1-2; Galatians 2:20; Hebrews 10:10, 14).

9. The Baptism in the Holy Spirit

We believe that the baptism in the Holy Spirit is the bestowing of the believer with power for life and service for Christ. This experience is distinct from and subsequent to the new birth, is received by faith, and is accompanied by the manifestation of speaking in tongues as the Spirit gives utterance as the initial evidence (Luke 24:49; Acts 1:8; 2:1-4; 8:15-19; 11:14-17; 19:1-7).

10. The Gifts of the Holy Spirit

We believe in the present day operation of the nine supernatural gifts of the Holy Spirit (1 Corinthians 12) and the ministry gifts of Christ (Ephesians 4:11-13) for the edification and expansion of the church.

11. The End of Time

We believe in the premillennial, imminent, and personal return of our Lord Jesus Christ to gather His people unto Himself. Having this blessed hope and earnest expectation, we purify ourselves, even as He is pure, so that we may be ready to meet Him when He comes (John 14:1-3; Titus 2:13; 1 Thessalonians 4:15-17; 1 John 3:2-3; Revelation 20:1-6).

We believe in the bodily resurrection of all humanity, the everlasting conscious bliss of all who truly believe in our Lord Jesus Christ, and that everlasting conscious punishment is the portion of all whose names are not written in the Book of Life (John 5:28-29; 1 Corinthians 15:22-24; Revelation 20:10-15).

ARTICLE III. NATURE AND FUNCTION

The nature of this Fellowship is a cooperative body of worldwide Assemblies of God national councils of equal standing. It is not a legislative organ to any national entity, but it is rather a coalition of commitment for the furtherance of the Gospel to the ends of the world and thus shall function as a service agent:

1. To uphold one another in prayer.
2. To support and encourage one another in the task of missions and evangelism.
3. To promote Christian fellowship and cooperation among Assemblies of God people throughout the world.
4. To provide means of consultation and cooperation among the members and related agencies.
5. To share mutual concerns and insights relating to any crucial, spiritual and temporal issues of the Church.
6. To administer relief in times of crises.
7. To promote exchange of personnel in special areas of ministry.
8. To disseminate helpful information and up-to-date statistics for the benefit of the Church.
9. To be a voice to the world and governments in defense of the faith, social justice, and persecuted believers, as the largest single Pentecostal group.

ARTICLE IV. MEMBERSHIP AND RESPONSIBILITY

1. Any national council or fraternal organization which desires to cooperate in the work of the World Fellowship is eligible to apply for membership, subject to the approval of the Executive Council.
2. In accepting membership in the World Fellowship, each superintendent/leader thereby accepts responsibility for assisting in the furtherance of the purpose and work of the World Fellowship.

ARTICLE V. STRUCTURE AND MEETINGS

1. The nationally delegated leaders shall assemble in a General Assembly of the World Fellowship ordinarily not less than once every three years.
2. The Executive Council shall consist of regional representatives elected for a term of three years. Their term shall commence immediately after the close of the General Assembly of the World Fellowship at which they were duly elected.
3. The Executive Council shall be responsible for the transaction of all business matters as authorized by the General Assembly and shall meet annually to review and chart the direction and progress of the World Fellowship.
4. All delegates and Executive Council members shall attend all meetings at their own expense.
5. The Executive Council shall, from among themselves, nominate candidates for each officer's post, stipulated in Article VI, and election shall be by a simple majority vote of the General Assembly.

ARTICLE VI. OFFICERS AND OFFICE LOCATION

1. The officers shall consist of the Chairperson, Vice Chairperson, and the Secretary.
2. Their term of office shall be for three years and shall commence immediately after the close of the General Assembly at which they were elected.
3. The officers shall meet not less than once every year to administer interim business of the World Fellowship.
4. The location of the office of the World Fellowship shall be at the office of the Chairperson.

ARTICLE VII. OFFICERS' DUTIES

1. It shall be the duty of the Chairperson:
 - a. To preside at the General Assembly of the World Fellowship.
 - b. To preside at the meetings of the Executive Council.
 - c. To supervise all work at the international office.
 - d. To have oversight of the work of the World Fellowship on behalf of the General Assembly and Executive Council.

 - a. To preside at meetings in the absence of the Chairperson.
 - b. To assist the Chairperson.
 - c. To perform any other duties under the supervision of the chairperson or as such may be directed by the Executive Council or General Assembly.

3. It shall be the duty of the Secretary:
 - a. To act as Secretary to the Executive Council and General Assembly and make and file accurate records of the proceedings at all meetings.
 - b. To be custodian of all official records, minutes of conferences and meetings of Executive Council and General Assembly and of correspondence inward and copies of outward correspondence to the Assemblies of God World Fellowship.

ARTICLE VIII. SPECIAL COMMISSIONS

1. There shall be provision made for a Relief and Development Commission, a Religious Liberty Commission, a Missions Commission, a Theological Commission, and other special commissions as may be established by the Executive Council which shall be instruments of the World Fellowship for the purpose of providing services.
2. These special commissions shall be accountable to and report directly to the Executive Council. The special commissioners are appointed by the Executive Council for a term of three years renewable thereafter.
3. The special commissions shall formulate and adopt their own written set of policies and procedures, subject to the approval of the Executive Council.
4. The special commissions shall publish reports as needed.

ARTICLE IX. FINANCE

1. The sources of income shall be a contribution by each member within the World Fellowship, freewill offerings by local churches, and voluntary gifts.
2. A proposed budget and financial report shall be submitted to the Executive Council for approval.
3. The Chairperson shall have oversight of the financial accounting and reporting of the World Fellowship, and all relevant books and records shall be properly kept at the office of the Chairperson.

ARTICLE X. AMENDMENTS

Amendments to this constitution may be made by a two-thirds majority of the votes cast at any General Assembly, provided notice of an amendment shall have been submitted to the members three months before the meeting.

Appendix A

Guidelines for International Ministerial Relations and Ethics

(Adopted by the WAGF members in the General Assembly in Brazil, September 25, 1997, to be attached at the end of 'the Constitution and Bylaws)

Whereas,

the World Assemblies of God Fellowship exists to be a service to its membership, and

Whereas,

an increasing number of persons are seeking ministerial opportunities on an international basis, and

Whereas'

care should be taken in the screening of persons who we offer permission to minister in our pulpits, and

Whereas,

there does not exist in each country the necessary information to serve our pastors in that regard, and there is a recognized responsibility of each national fellowship to be ready to care for inquiries regarding ministerial endorsements for those desiring ministries in another country,

Whereas,

Therefore,

be it resolved that the following procedure be recognized:

1. That the leaders of each national fellowship who are asked to receive the ministry of an unknown person, be it recommended they contact the leaders of the Assemblies of God of his/her country of origin requesting endorsement or other recommendation regarding the same, and
2. That the organizational leaders in every member nation be prompt and factual in their confidential communication regarding the doctrinal and ethical purity of the person seeking acceptance for ministry in another nation, and
3. That attention and promotion be given in each fellowship to sensitize all pastors, as shepherds of the household of faith, as regards the care which they should exercise in determining those who should be allowed to speak in their pulpits.
